GENIUS LOCI TRAVEL - The Real Spirit Of Italy

INTRODUCTION

The Amalfi Coast is probably Italy's most beautiful coastline and tourists have flocked there for centuries. More recently, its amazing network of footpaths has been discovered too. And it's just as well, because walking along the Amalfi Coast is something everyone should do at least once in their life! For the more seasoned walker, or for those who have already walked the Amalfi Coast, Genius Loci Travel has developed this special tour, which brings you not only to the famous coastal resorts, but also lets you discover a number of 'hidden treasures'. On this trip your overnight stays are equally divided between the two most famous resort towns, Amalfi & Positano, and beautiful, quiet locations 'off the beaten track'.

As the Sorrento Peninsula, the southern coastline of which is the Amalfi Coast, is basically a high mountain chain emerging from the Mediterranean, the landscape of the Costiera Amalfitana is immensely varied and surrounded by infinite ever-changing views. Along the coast itself it can be typically Mediterranean, with numerous species of wild perfumed herbs, myrtle shrubs, thyme, rosemary and mastic trees. And as it is protected from the cold northern winds by the impressive mountains, it has a wonderful climate & flowers all year round. Further inland it can be almost alpine with meadows and bare rocks. In between, man has created an incomparable mosaic terraced landscape. Amazing lemon groves and vineyards look out over the clear sea. And cultural heritage abounds, with beautiful little churches, ruins of castles and old farmhouses found all over the place... The Costiera Amalfitana is definitely Europe's most dramatic stretch of coastline!

And the best thing is everything can be discovered on foot, as there are thousands of footpaths. Some of which have become famous, such as the "Sentiero degli Dei" (the "Footpath of the Gods") or are at least a thousand years old, like the "Maestra dei Villaggi" – the 'main road' of the Republic of Amalfi. But there are unknown trails which are just as beautiful as well! Heading from the sea to the mountains, or vice versa, there are always stupendous views, and you'll walk through little villages, vineyards and olive groves, Mediterranean scrubs and woods, living rocks and chestnut woods. This special tour shows you the paths most guides don't know about and most books don't tell you about! This is the perfect tour for those who want to discover both the real charm of the Amalfi Coast and some of the famous spots as well.

Of course you'll have the time to visit the villages which are must-see attractions: Amalfi itself, but also Atrani, wonderfully preserved through the centuries, Ravello with its magnificent villas, and of course the scenic and fashionable Positano. You will mainly walk along well-maintained footpaths and paved alleyways, through attractive countryside, with wonderful terraced lemon groves, vineyards and cultural treasures like rural chapels, ancient farmhouses, old watermills and wonderful villas and villages, where you can sit down and relax with a drink.

On this tour you will discover that the Amalfi Coast has become Italy's most famous coastline with good reason. But also that it only takes a little effort to get 'off the beaten track' and you will find yourself surrounded by nature.

Please note: this is a moderately easy tour which is suitable for those who have some experience of walking and a good general physical condition. Most of the walks are on good paths, partly waymarked. Elsewhere you have to follow the route notes provided together with the maps. Average walking times: from approx 5 to 6 hours each day.

DAY-TO-DAY PROGRAMME

Day 1 – Arrival in Scala

Arrival in Naples (airport) or Salerno (train station). You are met by a taxi (optional) and brought to your hotel in Scala. If you feel like exploring the village centre you're free to pay a quick visit and then perhaps go for a swim in the panoramic pool to wash off the weariness of the journey.

Accommodation: Scala - Hotel ***

Day 2 – Up to Ravello and back down to the Amalfi Coast

Today you make a short roundwalk towards Ravello, one of the highlights of the Amalfi Coast. First you climb up to the small hamlet of Torello, through lemon groves and vineyards. Then, along a very scenic path, you continue up to Ravello. The French novelist André Gide once described this village as being 'closer to the sky than the seashore'. For centuries its lofty position and sunny, dry climate has made it an appealing place for writers, artists, musicians and travellers. Boccaccio, DH Lawrence and Richard Wagner are among the more notable guests who have succumbed to its spells. Wagner composed parts of his opera 'Parsifal' while staying here. Ravello also boasts two magnificent villas – the superb 11th-century Villa Rufolo was once a papal residence and later the home of Wagner, and Villa Cimbrone, a sumptuous 19th-century mansion with fabulous gardens and unequalled views over the Gulf of Salerno. From here you retrace your steps and return to the hotel. For those who want some more walking there is the chance to descend along a steep mule track and head down to the delightful coastal village of Atrani. Atrani is probably the best-preserved village on the Amalfi Coast, with narrow little streets and a serene village square. You can stop there for a drink before walking on to Amalfi. This walk, along a wonderful medieval mule track high above the coast, offers great views over both Atrani and Amalfi. From Amalfi you then take the local bus back to Scala.

Accommodation: Scala - Hotel ***

Total walking distance: 5-12 km. Approx. walking time: 4,5-5,5 h.

Day 3 – To the Waterfalls of the 'Valle delle Ferriere'

Today you walk down to Amalfi along an incredibly scenic path, through the higher parts of one of Italy's most interesting nature reserves, the 'Valle delle Ferriere'. First you walk about level to small hamlet of Minuta, from where a steep climb starts. Along a comfortable, more or less level path you then enter the valley. You will enjoy some spectacular scenery, walking over clear footpaths underneath the towering cliffs, and passing some little waterfalls. If you're feeling particularly brave there's even the chance to have a swim. Then you descend through the forest to the little village of Pogerola, dominating the valley of Amalfi from the west. From here you take some beautiful medieval steps, which offer nice views over the valley, down to the centre of Amalfi. Through a number of wonderful alleys you then end up in the main square, Piazza Duomo, and you can settle in at your hotel in the town centre.

Accommodation: Amalfi - Hotel ***

Total walking distance: 10 km. Approx. walking time: 5 h.

Day 4 – The Torre dello Ziro & Valle dei Mulini

Today is a special day which will really give you a good idea of the amazing cultural and natural heritage of the Amalfi Coast. The first part of the walk takes us into the quiet little back alleys of Amalfi, where you can still notice the strong Moorish influence. An ancient flight of steps takes us up beneath the impressive limestone cliffs towards the little village of Pontone, part of the medieval defence system of the town of Amalfi. You walk to the spectacular Torre dello Ziro, located on a narrow ridge in a park-like landscape, which is a marvellous picnic spot with unforgettable views of Amalfi to the one side and Atrani to the other. Then you descend into the 'Valle dei Mulini', the valley of the mills, with its ruins of Europe's most ancient paper factories, dating back to the 11th century. The easy path runs alongside the course of the river, in an abundant, green, almost un-Italian landscape. Those who feel like it can penetrate deep into the valley, to admire a number of beautiful waterfalls. Then you return back down to Amalfi. Along the path there are many impressive ruins of the first paper mills of Europe, adding a mysterious touch to the landscape. Back down in Amalfi you can visit the paper museum, before returning to your hotel.

Accommodation: Amalfi - Hotel ***

Total walking distance: 7,5 km. Approx. walking time: 4,5-5 h.

Day 5 – From Amalfi to Agerola

To gain a bit of altitude today you can take the local bus to Pogerola (optional, strenuous walk). From Pogerola you then climb up to the small church of Madonna dei Fuondi, where you get impressive views over the whole coastline. Another short stretch uphill brings you onto one of the area's long-distance paths, that of the 'Valle delle Ferriere'. Walking along this comfortable footpath through chestnut forests and deep valleys, and partly along the edge of the high plain, with marvellous views over the whole coast and Capri, you reach the small village of San Lazzaro, on the plain of Agerola. A short detour can bring you to the impressive ruins of the Convent of Cospiti, founded by St. Francis. After San Lazzaro, a very scenic path beneath the towering cliffs takes you into the higher part of the 'Fjord' of Furore, one of southern Italy's most spectacular canyons. The path then gradually ascends through a terraced area towards the scattered houses of the village of Furore. You then walk up again and reach the rural outskirts of the village of Bomerano, where your comfortable agriturismo is located. Here you will spend the next two nights.

Accommodation: Bomerano - Agriturismo

Total walking distance: 10 km. Approx. walking time: 5 h.

Day 6 – To the highest peaks of the Amalfi Coast

Today's walk brings you into the mountains above Bomerano, towards the highest peaks of the Amalfi Coast. Views from here are perhaps even more beautiful than from the famous 'Sentiero degli Dei'. The first part of the walk is a relaxed stroll through the charming village of Bomerano, but then, through vineyards and chestnut forest, the path starts to climb up to Monte Tre Calli. After about an hour walking uphill you reach the ridge of Monte Tre Calli, where you find unrivalled 360° views! A fantastic scenic walk takes you along the ridge, through meadows and forest, to a natural rock formation known as 'the mushroom'. From here there is the option of continuing towards the highest mountain in the area, Monte Sant'Angelo. Otherwise you can opt for a relaxed picnic lunch. Then you start the descent towards the little chapel of the 'Virgin of the Silence', where you will enjoy magical views of Positano. You then walk back from there to your agriturismo along an easy road, with views that are grand to say the least.

Accommodation: Bomerano - Agriturismo

Total walking distance: 12 km. Approx. walking time: 5 h. Height gain and loss: 500 m. (several extensions possible)

Day 7 – Along the 'Path of the Gods' to Positano

Directly from your agriturismo you walk onto the most famous footpath of the Amalfi Coast, the 'Sentiero degli Dei' (Footpath of the Gods), a walk with unrivalled views. After a first beautiful stretch through terraced vineyards and ancient buildings you reach Colle Serra, where the views open up towards the other end of the peninsula: from the monastery of San Domenico, dominating the coast from its stupendous hilltop position, all the way until the island of Capri. You then follow a very panoramic stretch, through spectacular scenery with bizarre rock formations and luxurious vegetation. Here the 'Footpath of the Gods' really lives up to its name! Then you reach the charming hamlet of Nocelle and, passing yet another spectacular valley, you'll arrive in the little village of Montepertuso. After Montepertuso it's only a short walk down to Positano itself, one of the most charming villages on the coast.

Accommodation: Positano - Hotel

Total walking distance: 8 km. Approx. walking time: 4 h.

Day 8 – Positano seen from above

Today you take a local bus up to Montepertuso, where you start a great day's walk, all around the valley of Positano. Following ancient footpaths through the forest and past marvellous viewpoints you climb up towards Santa Maria al Castello, the fortress defending the narrow valley between the Amalfi and Sorrento sides of the peninsula. From here you can admire both the Gulf of Salerno and the Bay of Naples. Through a nice park you then walk along an easy trail to the Caserma Forestale (the forestry service hut). Those who want to can climb up from here to Monte Sant'Angelo, the highest mountain of the peninsula, a very demanding but rewarding ascent. The standard walk continues through the forest and, with a number of zigzags, descends down to Montepertuso. Along another medieval mule track you descend back down to Positano.

Accommodation: Positano - Hotel

Total walking distance: 9 km. Approx. walking time: 4 h.

Day 9 – Departure

End of the tour. Return to Naples/Salerno by taxi, boat or bus or extension of the tour.
